Total US mare foal out of half-sister Brother de Jeu, Asther de Jeu, dam line Sister de Jeu and Thriller

Total US x J. Esther II SVN

Total US's possibilities seem unlimited. Edward Gal stated he feels this phenomenon could just be the actual successor to his sire Totilas. Total US offspring is scarce at the moment and that makes this filly out of this Grand Prix dam line all the more exceptional.

We can state of Jane-Esther SVN that she belongs to the crème de la crème of Dutch dressage breeding. Sire Negro requires practically no further explanation.

And what about dam O.Esther, an elite, 2 times preferente, 3 times prestatie mare? This Jazz-daughter, bred by the late Huub van Helvoirt, is one of just ten broodmares registered with the KWPN that have ever produced three Grand Prix offspring! And with O.Esther these three are currently competing at the highest level. During the 2019 Amsterdam World Cup Grand Prix her offspring Asther de Jeu (Tosca Visser) and the very successful Brother de Jeu (Antonia Ramel) competed against each other. And finally, there is also Esther SVN, born in 2009, who is also competing at Grand Prix-level. Furthermore, O.Esther produced the Small Tour horses W.Esther de Jeu and Zafriq de Jeu along with various other remarkable sports horses, including Glamour-Esther SVN who holds the predicates sport dressage and keur, Jazzuan SVN is in education by Patrick van de Meer. Kehinde Esther SVN (with 80 for exterieur and 85 for movements) had with Febe van Zwambacht 88 points for the IBOP test which was the highest score of 2019 in Holland.

Also very worth mentioning is Jane-Esther's great-granddam Esther (s. Amor). The foundation mare of this top-line is the dam of the well-known Grand Prix horses Sister de Jeu (Edward Gal) and Thriller (Katja Gevers).

Dam line J. Esther II SVN (s. Negro, 2014)

-Dam O. Esther (s. Jazz) also produced Brother de Jeu (Grand Prix, Antonia Ramel), Aster de Jeu (Grand Prix, Tosca Visser), Esther SVN (Grand Prix, Marijke van Giesen), Zafriq de Jeu (Inter II), W. Esther de Jeu (Small Tour) and the approved stallion Jazzuan SVN.
